

METHODISTS ADOPT MAJORITY REPORT

Rule Which Prohibits Dancing and Kindred Amusements Retained.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 18.—By an aye and nay vote of 446 to 305, delegates to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church late today voted not to accept the minority report of the committee on state of church, which provided for the striking out of that paragraph of the discipline which prohibits dancing and kindred amusements. The majority report, which favored the retention of the paragraph, was then adopted.

With seven bishops still to be elected there are twenty men who, according to the third ballot, have a following of more than 100 votes. At the head of the list is W. O. Shepard of Chicago, who leaped to the front yesterday with a gain of seventy-nine votes, and who probably will be the second of the eight men to be chosen. Near the top of the list is Dr. Matt. S. Hughes of Pasadena, California, whose brother, Edwin H. Hughes, is a bishop of the church. Dr. Franklin Hamilton, chancellor of the church school at Washington, D. C., who has been polling a heavy vote in the conference, also has a brother, John W. Hamilton, in the college of bishops.

The fourth ballot, the result of which was announced today, resulted in no election. W. O. Shepard, Chicago, received 456 votes, while 526 are necessary to a choice.

While the episcopacy committee is said definitely to have decided early in the week on the new episcopacy, it was said that at a meeting last night the decision was reconsidered and that Zurich, Switzerland, may get a place instead of Copenhagen or Rome. The cities in the United States which it was said the committee would recommend for bishops' residences are Atlanta, Ga.; Detroit, Mich.; Pittsburgh, Pa.; Kansas City, Mo.; and Helena, Montana.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Murray, Utah, May 18.
To settle a dispute, will you please publish in the Sunday Tribune the correct answer to the following question: Which is the most feasible route from New York to the Philippines, and when will this route probably be changed? AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.
Across the continent to San Francisco, thence by sea; or by the voyage is to be all by ship, then the route via the Suez canal is the most feasible one. As to change of route, the voyage by ship will be diverted to the Panama canal when that is opened for traffic.

Salt Lake City, May 18.
I would greatly appreciate a reply through the Questions and Answers column in the next Sunday Tribune giving the following facts: (1) State the highest record, if any, of number of distinct words spoken during a given time, say five, fifteen, thirty minutes, etc., by any prominent orator or public speaker; also which is the longest public speech on record, where and by whom made? (2) Who will be our next president? (3) J. W. C. (1) We have no record of speed or volume of delivery. (2) It looks to us like Taft.

Salt Lake City, May 17.
Kindly tell me through your valuable paper whether anybody can get a marriage license and get married at the county clerk's office on a holiday, say, for instance, July 4?
A. S. C.
The Fourth of July or any other holiday, including Sunday, is a good day to get married on. A marriage contract on a holiday is perfectly legal. But it is likely that the county clerk's office would not be open, so that the license should be taken out the day before.

Mercur, May 17.
Will you kindly tell in next Sunday's Tribune in what year the army canteen was abolished? Was the canteen created by act of congress or by the surgeon general or secretary of war, or in any other way, in short, how was it created? Was it not suspended by some action of the surgeon general or secretary of war or commander of the army before congress took action? This question is important to many and is being discussed with warmth by public men in the current literature of the day.

The army canteen, officially known as the post exchange, is established at every garrison post under regulations issued by the war department. The purpose is to have it serve primarily as a club for the enlisted men, and to furnish them and the other military inhabitants at the post with articles at the lowest price consistent with cost and good quality. It is managed as a co-operative concern by a commissioned officer detailed for the purpose, the profits being divided pro rata among the different organizations participating as a part of the company fund for the improvement of the enlisted men's mess. Being run under the special regulations of the war department, the amount of a soldier's indebtedness to the post exchange may be charged against him and collected on the monthly payrolls of his company. The canteen has not been abolished, but in 1899 congress passed a law forbidding the sale of beer, wines, and spirits in the canteen. There was no suspension of the canteen by the action of any officer or authority before congress took this action, nor was the canteen suppressed by the action of congress which forbade the sale of the liquors therein. It is quite true that the question is both important and of great public interest, for most of the army officers are in favor of the restoration of the sale of beer and light wines at the canteen.
